About St Bede's

St Bede's School was opened in 1964 as a Grammar Technical School. Following amalgamations with two local Catholic Secondary Modern Schools, St Bede's became a comprehensive school serving the Catholic population of North West Durham.

The school is a voluntary aided school of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle and opened as an academy on 1st June 2012.

The St Bede's catchment area is mainly from the Derwentside district, the major centres of population of which are Consett and Stanley. The school has an excellent reputation in the local community, working in close partnership with its feeder Primary Schools; it also attracts a number of pupils from outside its catchment area. All main school year groups are oversubscribed and our Post 16 pupil numbers are healthy. The number of pupils on roll is 1396, with 176 of these in our thriving Sixth Form.

Ofsted judged us as Outstanding in both our Section 5 and Section 48 Inspections: "St Bede's is a welcoming and inclusive school which provides an outstanding Catholic educational experience for all its members. Students are well supported and flourish in a community which helps them reach their fullest personal potential"; "all students flourish and achieve outstandingly well."

In September 2014 St Bede's became a National Teaching School, and as such, has been recognised as a centre of excellence with an outstanding performance and a track record of raising standards through supporting other schools, leadership development and initial teacher training.

St Bede's joined the Bishop Wilkinson Catholic Education Trust on 1st April 2020. The Bishop Wilkinson Catholic Education Trust is a family of 5 secondary schools and 15 primary schools from across Gateshead, Sunderland, Durham and Northumberland, in the west of the Diocese. The Trust will expand to a total of 48 schools by 2022.
